Mrs. Gertrude S. Foreman,
Albion, N.Y.

My dear Mrs. Foreman:

I was very much gratified to receive your kind letter of April 13th. It was very thoughtful of you to take so much trouble to write such a long and interesting letter. I enjoyed the church calendar and noticed with particular interest your name upon it.

Mrs. Carl Jackson is still an active and much beloved member of our congregation. She spends her winters in the South but ought to be returning to us before many weeks. I am taking the liberty of letting her know about you because I know she will be interested. Her sister, Mrs. Ashley Smith who was also very active in our church passed away some time ago.

Thanking you again for your kindness and with every wish for your happiness and health, I am,

Very sincerely,

Albion— April 13th 1927

Rev. Stewart M. Robinson—
Lockport— N. Y.

Dear Sir:—

May I introduce myself as one of the "shut-in's" that has been "listening in" through the last four months to the sabbath services held in the First Presbyterian Church in Lockport and tell you how much I have enjoyed your sermons and all of the service of these sabbath days now gone by. They have indeed been a great pleasure and most helpful and comforting to me and I want to express to you my deep appreciation of this ministry during this time when I have not been able to go to my own church here in Albion. The organist too has been listened to most intently as well as the singer whose solos have been nearly all familiar to me and when the hymns are sung I have sung with you all and repeated the Creed in fact followed the service as if I were present. I can distinguish the Organists change of stops, his pedals. The tremolo is very clear. Last sunday "The Holy City" was full of worship, I am very fond of the organ, it has a wonderful part in a church service.

The Lockport church is not a stranger to me, many years ago my sister and her husband were of that household of faith, Mr and Mrs. H. P. Stimson now they are sleeping here in beautiful Mt. Albion. I used to hear them talk of Mrs. Carl Jackson, I wonder if she still lives. These were in the days of Martha Babcock, a long time ago.

Enclosed is our church calendar on it'm will introduce the writer farther.

Hoping this may meet with your approval and that I may meet you some time in the future to thank you personally I am

Very sincerely

[Mrs.] Gertrude Sutter Foreman

My dear Miss Allen:

My attention was called to the fact that you left behind you at church on Sunday a very generous contribution for which I wish to personally thank you. I believe you are the lady who stopped me at the door and said that you were generally a member of our radio congregation.

It was a very great pleasure to have you worshipping with us actually in the body last Sunday. We shall feel ever so much better acquainted with you having seen you and known you.

Thank you very much for your interest and for the trouble you took to come all the way over here to church.

With all good wishes, I am,

Cordially yours,

My dear Denton:

I hope no great wave of crime of wickedness followed the service of last Sunday. I certainly enjoyed myself to the limit and was delighted with everything. A great many people over here listened in and all their comments were most enthusiastic.

The gracious hospitality of your mother was keenly appreciated and the evening spent with the family a very choice one. Toronto is rapidly becoming for me a very much favorite city.

With all good wishes to the members of your family,I am,

Cordially yours,
